GENERAL INFORMATION

- 1.1 COURSE TITLE: Certificate Course in Children's Ministry
- 1.2 AWARD AT END OF COURSE: TSM Certificate in Children's Ministry.
- 1.3 VALIDATING AUTHORITY: The Shepherd's Ministries (TSM)
- 1.4 NORMAL DURATION: 2 Weeks (Evenings and weekends) OR 3 Weekends (Friday-Sunday) OR 10 Weeks (Saturdays)

2.1 RATIONALE, AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

The need to include children in the full life and ministry of the Church cannot be over emphasized. More than half of the world's population are children and they are the least evangelised group.

Children form an inseparable part of the body of our Lord Jesus Christ. They are equal members of His body and should be allowed to take their place in His army. They can minister and be ministered to.

There is a great need to train and equip every Christian on how to reach and disciple children for the Lord Jesus Christ.

2.2 AIMS

To help Christians develop the understanding, attitudes, and skills required to raise a generation of children who can make the right choices in life; shine as light in the midst of darkness; live above survival; be winners and champions; at home in the Spirit and Word of God. Raising an army of children who are proud emissaries of their maker.

2.3 OBJECTIVES

It is expected that the Student, will, on completion of this course

- a) Be able to effectively lead a child to Christ and disciple such a child.
- b) Be able to bring children into an experience of worshipping God in truth and in Spirit.
- c) Be able to give children a world-view based on God's Word.
- d) Be able to help children exercise their gifting in local and global missions.
- e) Be able to help children to be living and active members of a local Church and playing practical and dynamic roles in world missions.
- f) Have a basic knowledge of several applications of audio and visual aids used in Child Evangelism.
- g) Be able to apply a wide range of techniques in managing children in and outside the home environment.
- h) Be well prepared to run an effective children's ministry in their church and neighbourhood.
- i) Be able to enter higher-level courses in Christian Ministry.

4. TEACHING, LEARNING AND ASSESSMENT METHODS.

The course is designed to be very practical. Teachers use a range of teaching styles to stimulate and sustain interest, to involve students in a process of active learning, and to give each student the opportunity to participate. Likewise, the variety of assessment methods are intended to afford every student the opportunity to show what he or she has achieved in terms of knowledge, competencies and skills.

The background of students are wide ranging and there is much opportunity for those with little or no previous experience in children's ministry to benefit from those who have, particularly in group activities and practical sessions. Personal assistance is also given to students by the teaching staff.

5. COURSE MANAGEMENT.

The day-to-day management of the course is the responsibility of the Training Coordinator assisted by the Course Team. The team comprises of:

- (a) Training Coordinator.
- (b) Training Committee.
- (c) All Teaching Staff.

Student involvement in the running and development of the course is valued and ensured via the Board of Studies.

6. ADMISSION REGULATIONS.

All candidates must be committed Christians.

There is no strict educational qualification, but applicants must demonstrate the ability to assimilate and handle information from spoken and written communications to meet the required needs.

The Training Coordinator will be responsible for assessing Applications for admission and may invite applicants for interview.
