

Resting in the Everlasting Arms of God

“The eternal God is your refuge, and his everlasting arms are under you...”
(Deuteronomy 33:27 NLT)

Fires rage, storms rise, floods breach barriers and the earth quake. This is a familiar tale of life. No one is promised immunity or exemption for any or all of these dizzying life challenges.

As terrifying as these threats may look, we all can find real solace in the in the assurance that the Everlasting Arms of God are underneath us.

My youngest child once said to me during our family devotion when she was only 4 years old: “Daddy, do you know that God’s hands are so big that you can go shopping, playing, ridding your bike, go to school, and you will never fall off”!!!

That is so much to come from a four year old. It was inspired! I know for certain that no one with confidence in God can ever fall below His Everlasting Arms. He keeps His own, and no one can ever snatch them out of His hands (John 10:27-30).

I pray that you and your loved ones will grow in your love for good and faithful Shepherd of our soul (2 Peter 3:18).

Stand firmly in the FACT that “...God is light and in Him is no darkness at all” (1 John 1:5). Trust in His absolute goodness.

Let your soul find rest in Him at all times.

Lots of love,

Chuks Aniereobi,
Director.